

Body Fat

Today's increase in food consumption affects human body fat. Effect of that some body part of people measurement change. So, hospitals are trying to make a new survey about human body fat. The result of the survey is that they collect information about their body fat and other body specifications. Now they want to see the relation of this data with body fat.